Reflections

In the year 2005, I came to know that the Creator of the Universe has a Name. Most of humanity does not know Him at all. Because of iniquity, traditions and erroneous translations He is now called by a pagan “English” title and name: “God” and “Lord”. There are thousands of languages in the world, by result, people call Him in thousands of different ways. Since He is ONLY the Elahym of the Hebrews, He MUST have a Hebrew Name; Yahuah.

The Father has many titles, Elahym, El Shaddai, The Everlasting, Wonderful etc. He has only one name, אָיָאָה : Yahuah. Psalms (A song) 68:4 says His Name is Yah. To adjudicate someone a name is a prerogative of a superior being. As a parent we name our sons, when they grow up, they DO NOT name us. To name Him as we please is insolence and is offensive to Yahuah. Look up all Scriptures (in the original text) referring to His Name, see it for yourself! Why would Yahuah command that all man call upon His Set Apart Name-a Name which He proclaims it is eternal and a memorial to all generations and then permit the pronunciation of His own Name to be lost and unattainable? Such a Creator would be very cruel, devising an unsolvable dilemma for men; or a bungler, who foolishly lost control of a situation and must now bail mankind out by permitting them to circumvent His own Commandments. This is impossible!

Thou shalt not take the name of אָיָאָה thy Elahym in vain; for אָיָאָה will not hold him guiltless that brings his name to ruin.

This is the third Commandment! I choose to obey it to the best of my knowledge.

And אֱלֹהִים said moreover unto Mosheh, This shalt you say unto the children of Ysrael, אֱלֹהִים, the Elahym of your fathers, the Elahym of Abraham, the Elahym of Ysaac, and the Elahym of Yacob, has sent me unto you: אֱלֹהִים: YAHUAH, this is my Name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

I see no point for debates with this matter; I stand on my own to show my self-approved. I encourage the reader to search the Scriptures (original text), for in them, you shall find Eternal Life! In addition to the Book of Life, the Father, אֱלֹהִים: YAHUAH, is writing another Book:

Malachi 3:16 Then they that feared אֱלֹהִים spoke often one to another: and אֱלֹהִים hearkened, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for them that feared אֱלֹהִים, and that thought upon His Name.

Will your name be written in this Book? Be diligent and study, for this is a very important matter!
